After a very successful launch in summer 2010, we will be offering our third season of flying trapeze instruction for adults at Circus Arts Camp. During our Aerial Arts Week, we will hold evening open classes in flying for adults 18 and over, August 6–9.

Joining CAC's regular teaching staff of experienced professionals again in 2012 will be Mary Kelly Rayel and her associates from Fly School Circus Arts in Pennsylvania. Mary Kelly attended the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Clown College and later performed on the flying trapeze with the "Greatest Show on Earth" for several years. She has taught flying trapeze, circus arts, and gymnastics at Club Med, Circus Smirkus, and Cirque du Jour, as well as workshops with Trapeze Experience and has been a guest teacher in Washington, DC for Trapeze School New York, which has popular locations in several major U.S. cities. Additionally Mary Kelly holds a B.A. in Theater from Ithaca College and has earned both USA Gymnastics Safety Certification and USAG KAT Certification.
